

Following the success of the induction course in previous years, the DAA offers its two-day induction course on Wednesday 12 and Thursday 13 March 2025 for associates (advocaat-medewerkers) with some background and/or experience in arbitration. This invitation also extends to inhouse legal counsel and members of the judiciary. The speakers shall provide an in-depth look into recent developments and practice under commonly used rules in arbitration. The full program can be found below.

You may email info@dutcharbitrationassociation.nl for more information and to apply. Places are limited and applications should be received by 21 February 2025. We shall inform applications on their selection by 28 February 2025. Participants are requested to pay EUR 175 (excluding VAT) to cover costs and expenses.

A certificate of attendance will be provided so that the course is eligible for permanent education ("PO") points.
